

We had fun and learned many interesting things at our University of Manitoba Science presentation. The students learned the science behind making bouncy balls and dissected an owl pellet.

June will be a busy month that will fly by! The Bookmobile will be back for the last pickup on June 8. We are hoping for good weather for our picnic and some other fun outdoor activities.